Patrick: http://patterico.com/2011/01/24/charles-johnson-impotently-tries-to-threaten-my-job/me: one of his commenters was talking about either having Daedalus killed or taking down the server me: today
me: as you may have seen me: suffice to say that if LGF continues to engage in that behavior me: you may be aware of what we did in Tunisia me: we took down every government site except for ones we took over and replaced with our messages me: http://www.dailykos.com/story/2011/1/24/938432/-Tunisians-Thank-Anonymous-as-North-Africa-Explodes me: And Charles and his folks were discussing calling FBI on me in a thread me: and Kilgore Trout, his moderator, accused me of working with Russian mafia Patrick: Didn't see that, where was that threat made (both of them: take down server threat and FBI threat) me: they've also maligned Anonymous even as we provided support to Jasmine REvoliution me: see DoD me: in fact me: I've provided them with some stuff me: that I'll give you as well me: Johnson talks about how people stalk him me: a year back, he asked me for IP address of a commenter at my own blog me: because he thought he knew who he was me: I have the e-mails me: if you want them, tell me me: oh, I'll get you link forr those other things me: http://littlegreenfootballs.com/article/37956_Overnight_Open_Thread/comments/#ctop me: search "Reginald Perrin" me: the fellow he refers to in the comment is Daedalus me: he is using his real name over and over again me: and threatening him me: Johnson moderates the fuck out of his comments me: as we all know me: and thus approves me: as for FBI me: here's part of it, reproduced by someone at DoD yesterday:

Some have speculated that the FBI already has an eyeball or two on him. Wouldn’t surprise me.

He’s admitted to being a member for the past 5 years and is in constant contact with many of them. I’m sure someone in the FBI would have quite a few questions for him about his friends.
me: thread can easily be found from that date and time me: there were other comments aside from those in that thread at LGF re: FBI/me me: this is about to get serious, so everyone on our side needs to be careful and deliberate me: anyway, someone needs to handle this soon me: in the traditional way me: Otherwise I'm getting Anon involved. That place has been a fucking stronghold of libel and they opposed the Tunisian revolution me: which is their right me: but we've coined a term me: "First Amendment remedies" me: http://littlegreenfootballs.com/showc/447/8879575 me: that's another, from the same thread as the threat he made
